

Allons

LET'S DO THIS TOGETHER!

DIOCESE OF HOUMA-THIBODAUX
STRATEGIC PLANNING

"Allons!" is a Cajun French verb translating into English as "Let's go!"

Dear Catholic Schools Families,

It is with prayerful anticipation and hope that I invite you to active participation in our diocesan strategic planning process, and, specifically, in our Catholic Schools Commission. As we embark on the work of the Catholic Schools Commission, I believe that together, as a strong faith community vested in the formation of missionary disciples, we will work to afford the children of our diocese an exceptional academic environment deeply rooted in our Catholic faith.

As we work to strengthen and secure the future of our Catholic schools, we want to hear from you as members of our diocese. I now humbly ask for your thoughts and opinions on the current status of our Catholic schools. Please take a few minutes to respond to our Catholic Schools Survey.

The statements are divided into the four pillars of the National Standards and Benchmarks for Effective Catholic Elementary and Secondary Schools and are specifically based on the standards and benchmarks of this landmark document developed through the collaboration of Catholic school educators throughout the United States, including scholars in Catholic higher education, superintendents, and administrators, as well as National Catholic Educational Association directors and executive committee members, congregational sponsors, pastors, and bishops.

The future is bright for our diocese and our Catholic schools! Through our combined efforts and dedication to this very important ministry, I am certain we can and will provide a strong Catholic education for the children of our diocese for years to come.

Prayerfully yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Suzanne Delaune Troxclair".

Suzanne Delaune Troxclair

Superintendent

Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux Catholic Schools