

DECEMBER PRINCIPALS' MESSAGE

On December 1st, a new church year begins with the season of Advent! Advent is a happy time of the year for preparing our hearts, minds and homes for the birth of Jesus, our Savior. It's a time to think and pray about the true meaning of Christmas.

Closing Prayer:

Lord Jesus, you left your heavenly home to come to us, and you stand at the door and knock. May we open our hearts and our homes to you, that you may make our earthly homes places of peace, serenity, comfort, harmony, and happiness. Thank you for our family homes and all the other places where we belong. As we decorate our homes for Christmas to celebrate your coming, may the lights, decorations, foods, and special treats say "welcome" to all. May there be laughter, joy, and happiness in our gatherings. May we put you where you belong-at the center of our festivities-to help us rejoice together. Amen.
