

Ms. Sophie Babin, a senior at Vandebilt Catholic High, spent some of her summer days painting murals at Maria Immacolata Catholic School. Sophie volunteered for the project when MICS Principal Prissy Davis contacted the VCHS Art Department to see if anyone was interested in taking on the project. The murals are on each stairwell of the two-story building, and one is in the middle of the second floor breezeway area.

Sophie Babin is the daughter of Tammy Babin and Paul Babin, residents of Houma. She is a member of Art Club, Key Club, Student Council (serves as Art Director), and is in Art IV and Graphic Design.

Sophie says she gets her inspiration from both parents – Her mom is a crafty person, who does hair design. Her father, very analytical, is in engineering design. Sophie also has a lot of support from her friends. One of those friends, Zeik Theriot (an MICS alumni), helped Sophie with these murals. Sophie plans to attend Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD) in Georgia.
